

A WORD ABOUT LIVE MUSIC

Unique occasions call for unique entertainment tailored to fit the needs and the aesthetics of the celebrants and the venue. Live performers inject personality into their music to suit the mood. Live performers interact with the crowd and respond to their enthusiasm. Live performance is adaptable in ways that canned music is not.

Every occasion is a once in a lifetime event. Give it that extra touch of class with live music. Visit my website and download a few tunes—see what a difference live music can make.

Meet Singer/Songwriter/Guitarist Fred Adams

Fred Adams entertaining at the Christian W. Klay Winery, 2011.

Fred Adams is a lifetime guitarist and vocalist well known in the Western Pennsylvania area. Over 50 years of playing the guitar has schooled him in all styles of play and types of music and has enabled him to provide all genres of music to suit any occasion, from formal weddings and banquets to the most casual party. His repertoire includes more than a thousand songs from memory, plus he offers electronic access to thousands more in the form of sheet music, allowing him to handle requests with ease. "I play everything but opera, rap, and speed metal," he says of his repertoire, which includes contemporary pop, jazz, big band, show tunes, country, classic rock, folk, blues and classical pieces.

Special Songs? No Problem

My play list is extensive, but most people have a song or two that have special meaning to them. Just tell me what song you want for your wedding ceremony, reception, or other special occasion and if it's not already on my list, I will prepare it in a special arrangement for solo performance just for you.

A Viable Alternative

For restaurants and club owners, I provide a break from the monotony of disc jockeys, and cocktail pianists. I have appropriate equipment to adequately handle any venue from an intimate room to a large hall or outdoor pavilion with ease. My basic setup requires a four-foot by four-foot space and a single house current outlet. My list of recent venues played includes resorts like Nemaocolin Woodlands and the Mount Summit Inn, restaurants like The Stone House and Pasta Lorenzo, and banquet venues like Lakeside Party Manor, Morning Glory, and Century Inn. I know what people want to hear, and I deliver.
